

IIC Partners Appoints New Global Leader of Industrial Practice Group

LONDON - IIC Partners, one of the world's largest retained executive search organizations, is pleased to announce the appointment of Todd Hohauser as the new global Leader of its Industrial Practice Group.

Mr Hohauser, President and COO of Harvey Hohauser & Associates in Detroit, Michigan, has more than 12 years experience in retained executive search in the Industrial and Technology sectors across Fortune 100 internationals, middle market and privately held corporations.

He holds a BS in Psychology and an MSM. A member of IIC Partners for five years, he was appointed to the IIC Partners Board in October last year.

"The Industrial sector is seeing an exciting re-invigoration of activity across the globe, with some fascinating trends emerging that will create as many challenges for our clients as they will opportunities, Mr Hohauser said, adding: "For example, the automotive industry is presently addressing the issues of geographical risk spreading within their supply base and this is creating some very interesting situations for executive level recruitment.

"Of course, with IIC Partners' exceptional global reach and strong sector and regional knowledge, we are ideally placed to assist our clients navigate these uncharted waters. I am delighted to take over at the helm of our highly respected Industrial Practice Group at this time," Mr Hohauser said.

IIC Partners Board Director, Practice Groups, Scott Doupe said: "Todd, being based in Detroit, a manufacturing hub of the world, is extremely successful, driven and highly respected in the Industrial sector. I am confident he will provide our Industrial PG with the continued high quality leadership and support they require.

"I'd like to thank our outgoing Industrial PG Leader John Morton of New Directions Search, Inc, Chicago, who did a tremendous job during his tenure," Mr Doupe added.

IIC Partners' vision is to build on its 25 years of success as the independent retained executive search partnership of choice. Through global reach, industry expertise and local knowledge, IIC Partners is trusted to deliver the highest quality retained executive search services, enabling the continued success of its clients.

The organization has 53 offices in 37 countries.

ENDS

For further comment from IIC Partners, please contact Polly Stewart by telephone on +44 (0) 7789220254 or by e-mail at pstewart@iicpartners.com